

'Y' Drive Ends Here Tuesday

Sam Levy, general chairman of the Torrance YMCA Fund Drive, announced that the drive has reached the two-third mark with $16,563 reported thus far.

Levy reminded all YMCA campaigners and citizens that the local drive ends next Tuesday evening with a Victory Banquet at the YWCA. He urged all persons concerned with the continuance of the YMCA to help in these last few days to reach the $24,000 goal. Levy pointed out that over 100 Y campaigners have not yet turned in a report, and he places high hopes that several thousand additional dollars will be forthcoming when these workers make their reports.

Special Appeal Made
In a special appeal to all of the 85,000 citizens of Torrance, Levy urged each person to share in the support of this fine organization by sending in a check to the YMCA at 2080 Washington Ave., or by phoning FA 8-1272 to have a Y campaigner call upon them.

Levy reminded all that in the past year the YMCA of Torrance has served over 2800 boys with camps, clubs, trips, leagues, and many other opportunities for growth. "Let's get behind our YMCA again this year," he said.

Success Cited
Evidence of current success in the program in this past week is that 1100 persons attended just three of the Torrance YMCA functions.

The most important was the Charter Night ceremonies of the new Torrance Y's Men's Club, an adult group related to the YMCA for service and fellowship. Over 300 people honored the group during its installation. Officers included Paul Burnam, president; Everett Bradford, vice president; Frank Renz, secretary; and Jack Day, treasurer. This men's group meets at the YMCA on the first and third Tuesday evenings each month. It is open to all men of Torrance between the ages of 21 and 36.

Tribes Inducted
Another great event was the induction of 10 more Y Indian Guide Tribes into the Torrance YMCA at the Civic Auditorium.

Six Boys Slap Girl, Rob Her of 60 Cents
Six boys slapped her 12-year-old daughter, knocked her down, and took 60 cents from her, a Lomita woman told sheriff's deputies Thursday.

The boys passed by in a car, asked the girl and a friend for money and when the girls ignored them, struck one, she said. The incident occurred at 285th and Cypress Ave.

last Thursday evening. More than 300 dads and sons participated in the colorful Indian ceremonials, and then enjoyed authentic Indian dances after the induction.

Then almost 500 younger boys participated in a "mystery trip" with their destination a surprise last Saturday. They discovered that it was to be a day of fun in Griffith Park, visiting the Planetarium, taking a hike, enjoying Travel Town, Fern Dell, and finally, the zoo.
